FAIR OF '01 A SUCCESS. Large Attendance on Wednesday and Thursday—The Races—Game of Base-ball—The Premium List.

For the first time in its history the Bedford County Agricultural society is out of debt. The receipts of the fair last week were large enough to pay all debts and leave a little nest egg besides. There were more people on the grounds on Wednesday than on any Wednesday of previous years. The attendance on Thursday was estinated at about 7,000. The gate receipts for the two days were $1,237.73. The total receipts were between $1.500 and $1,600. Thursday's races resulted Prec-lor-all Trotting and Pacing Race-

Ross Carbaugh, of Johnstown, died on Friday, of typhoid fever. The deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Carbaugh and was born in Bedford township on April 11, 1868. His parents removed to Bedford when Mr. Carbaugh was a young man. He was employed as a clerk by J. M. Kegg for a few years and subsequently was engaged as a teamster and was with his father, several years ago, when their team was struck by a train at Anderson's crossing below town. Mr. Car oaugh was killed and Ross was injured For the past few years the subject of this sketch has been working in Johnstown. His body was brought to Bedford Saturday evening and interred in the Catholic cemetery Sunday morning. Rev. Father D. Cash man conducted the funeral services. FAIR ASSOCIATION

Not to Blame For Kennedy Brother Failure to Fulfil Their Contract In consideration of two days' performances to be given by the Kennedy Bros' show during the continuance of the Fair, October 2 and 3, for the Bedford Fair As rociation at Bedford, Pa., in 1901, we, the President and Secretary of the above Asroclation, do agree to pay to the order of W. H. Kennedy, or agent, the sum of Three Hundred Dollars, fifty dollars to be vaid at the close of the first day's per formance, balance to be paid on the completion of the last performance on the last day of the Fair, and we also agree to fur nish fourteen good box stalls with straw, and passes at gate and grounds for per formers and grooms during the Fair free of charge, and also furnish privilege and space for a side show, 60-foot round-top tent in good location, free. The said Kennedy Bros. agree to furnish 300 bills for advertising free, and 300 lithos at cost, and also agree to give eight acts each day (any two races and six other acts) selected from the program as per circular, and to give i discount of ten ver cent, on account o bad weather, should any occur. Sealed this 27th day of June, 1901. W. H KENNEDY, Manager of Show D. W. LEE, Pres. Fair Association. WM I. EICHOLTZ. Sec'y Fair Asso.

The above is a true copy of the contract between the Bedford Agricultura society and the Kennedy Brothers Wild West show, We publish it and what follows for the information of the public who may be interested in the matter. On September 10 Kennedy Brothers assigned the contract between themsalves and the Bedford County Agricultural society to the Corn Belt Printing and Stationery company, of Bloomington, Ill., as security for two notes and an open account which the firm held against them. The notes were dated April 29, 1901.

The first intimation the fair man. agement had of this transaction was on Wednesday evening of fair week, October 2, when it received the following telegram :

Bloomington, Ill., October 2, 1901 Secretary Bedford Fair Association, Bedford, Pa.

Money on Kennedy contract payable to us. Pay same to First National Bank. They hold papers.

CORN BELT PRINTING AND STATIONERY COMPANY. From the foregoing it is plainly evi dent that the fair association had no knowledge of Kennedy Brothers' intention of breaking their contract until they received the telegram above referred to. The directors were as greatly disappointed and chagrined as the patrons of the fair. They acted in good faith and are in nowise to blame for the show's failure to appear

R. J. Wertz, Bedford, Ps.; John Eichelberger, Hopewell, Pa. Four Magazines for the Price of One.

Last season the magazine, Success of New York city, conducted a remarkable subscription campaign by means of a series of unusual clubbing offers and this year a more attractive list and even lower prices are an nounced. Those who formerly have taken but a single periodical at a cost ranging from $1.50 to $5 can now secure from two to four for the same price alone. The wide popularity of the Success clubbing offers may be estimated from the fact that nearly 300,000 people took advantage of them during the subscription season beginning last autumn and those who wish to make the most of their magazine money will surely avail themselves of the present exceptional opportunity. The offers would not be possible save for the co-operation of several periodicals in one advertisement, thus effecting a material saving to all concerned—especially to magazine readers. The list from which selections may be made includes Success, Review of Reviews, Cosmopolitan, Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly, Current Literature, North American Review, New England Magazine, Lealie's Weekly, Household, Good Housekeeping and Designer. "To whom?" asked his friend.
"Why, to one of the ten percenters, of course," was the reply. Dialogues such as this are of frequent occurrence between government clerks in Washington toward the end of the month. When a clerk sells his salary to a ten percenter, he gives the latter an I O U for the entire salary due him on the following pay day and receives in exchange 90 per cent of the amount. The man who makes the loar retains the remaining 10 per cent, whence his name of ten percenter.

The ten percenter is said to exist under one name or another in all of the great federal department buildings in Washington. He is invariably a shrewd government clerk who has a bit of money of his own or has saved his salary until its accumulation represents a tidy little sum. This capital he is ever ready to lend in sums of from $10 to $100. In a majority of the Washington of fices the laws against usurers are so rigorously enforced that the ten percenter is unable to transact business in safety as an individual; he exists nevertheless under the protecting title of a beneficial society. These fake societies should not be confused with the mutual beneficiary organizations which have been established for a number of years in many of the de partments, notably the government printing office, for the purpose of aiding sick or disabled members and their families and of burying the dead. The ten percenters' society never includes more than five or six members. They have their charter and a carefully drawn constitution and bylaws. Each member contributes a certain amount of money to the funds of the concern, and the other employees of the office are quietly informed how they can be accommodated with a loan for a small bonus. On the first of every month the pool divides its profits. These organizations are usually short lived, as they become unpopular when the business begins to grow large. The death of one take association is rapidly followed by the birth of a successor, differing from its predecessor in name only, so that the ten percenters are enabled to ply their trade without much Interruption.-New York Sun.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW presents in each issue, the most brilliant galaxy of articles upon world-problems to be found in any periodical, at home or abroad. Each is written by the one person in the world most competent to write upon that particular subject. For eighty-seven years "THE NORTH AMERICAN" has guided public opinion in this country, and the present editorial management is the most successful in the history of this famous Review. Monthly, $5.00 for annum.

SPECIAL Subscriptions may be either NEW OR RENEWAL except to the Review of Reviews, Current Literature, and the North American Review inch must be new; but present subscriptions to any of these three magazines may renew their subscriptions by adding $100, for each renewal subscription, to the combination prices named. Transfers from one member of the family to another are not accepted as new subscriptions, SUBSTITUTIONS A new subscription to Review of Reviews, a new subscription to Current Literature, and a new or renewal subscription to New England Magazine, may be substituted each for the other. Any of the dollar magazines above described may be substituted one for the other, except Success. A subscription to Success, either new or renewal, must be included in every order.

the other, except Success. A subscription to Success, either new or renewal, must be included in What is "Success"?

Success is the brightest, most up-to-date, and most profusely illustrated monthly published. It is read with eagerness by the father, the mother, the older sons and daughters, and even the children, containing, as it does, a wealth of material interesting to all ages and classes. It already reaches nearly 30,000 homes—over 1,500,000 readers. It is bright, cheerful and optimistic. Inspiration and life are in every page. In a thousand different ways, direct and indirect, it tells how to lay the foundation of true success in life—how to climb the ladder of achievement. Its contributors include the best known names in politics, religion, science, art, literature, and industry. Business and professional men of the highest standing—men who will write for no other periodical,—are willing to give to readers of Success the benefit of their wide and valuable experience. A series of articles upon "Careers" will form a special feature of Success for too. The illustrations in Success are by the best artists in the country. The inspiration of a lifetime has come to thousands of Success readers through their investment of one dollar,—its yearly subscription price.

TO OUR READERS

The above exceptional offers are extended to our readers by arrangement with the magazine, Success, which has made exclusive clubbing contracts with all of the above periodicals at extraordinarily low prices based on heavy subscription guarantees. We assure our readers that these periodicals cannot be obtained in any other way at as small a cost. Subscriptions will begin with issues requested, whenever possible to supply copies otherwise with the issue of the month following that in which the subscriptions are received. Send in your orders carly, with names of the magazines the address or addresses to which they are to be sent, and the club price. A SUGGESTION-You can make to your friends no more valuable Christmas present than a subscription to one or more of the maximum aims described about.

Yours to please,

Barnett's Store News.

WE take pleasure in informing you that our preparations for the coming busy season are upon a more elaborate scale than ever before—and we are already absolutely confident of being equipped to exceed all past seasons in advantageous offers to the people.

Black and Colored Dress Goods.

Plain effects are the favorites this year, both in black Plain effects are the favorites this year, both in black and colors. The covolties are chiefty in the weaves, not in the shades or the color combinations. The old favorite incoaded and moire patterns are revived, generally in monotone; but some pretty changeable shades are produced by skilful weaving in a single color, reproduces the property wo-tone effects of last season. In the way of staple fabrics, our assortment is, we believe, the most complete ever shown in Bedford County.

The New Broadcloths.

As you no doubt know, Dame Fashion holds Broadcloth and kindred weaves in highest favor this season. And in this she pays tribute to refined taste, true beauty and real economy. For several years this store has been considered as head quarters for cloths for tailor-made dresses. The large improvements and heavier stocks this season render our well established leadership in these lines relatively more pronounced than ever. And leadership is in this: Having as good or better selection of all grades and new colorings than any other store, at prices lower than any other store's lowest.

50c YARD. A very fine cloth, 50 inches wide; all wool, lustrous, and recommended by us for good wear. All the new fall shades and black.

Eldridge Ball Bearing, $23. Vindex, $14.98.

The sewing machine is no longer to be considered in the light of luxury, but rather as an absolute necessity, and should therefore be assigned its proper place in the household, with the cook stove, etc. No housewife can cook without a stove, and time is too fleeting to waste in sewing by hand these days, when a first-class sewing machine can be had at a very reasonable price, owing to improved and economical methods of manufacture. Among the prominent makes of sewing machines which have been on the market for years and with reasonable price, owing to improved and economical methods of manufacture. Among the prominent makes of sewing machines which have been on the market for years and with which the public is fairly familiar, there is one which is pre-eminent and the quality of which has never been questioned. It is the "Eldridge B" machine, of which over a million (1,000,-000) are now in daily use, and this number is being rapidly increased every year. These reasonable price, owing to improved and economical methods of manufacture. Among the machines have many advantages over the old-style machines. It has been demonstrated by machines have many advantages over the old-style machines. It has been demonstrated by exhaustive tests that this ball bearing stand will run fully eighty per cent. lighter than the old-style of construction without ball bearings. In each stand there are three separate and distinct ball bearings containing all told forty accurately ground and carefully hardened steel balls, three-sixteenths of an inch in diameter. The balance wheel is supported on two sets of bearings, one at each end of spindle, each containing fifteen balls. The pitman which bearings containing ten balls.
